

Spelling Practice (Multiple Intelligences)

The following list provides you with a variety of ways to practice spelling words at school and at home. Select the strategies that you enjoy the most. Vary the strategies each week. Try to determine which approaches helped you learn the spelling words the best.

- Create categories for your spelling words. For example, one category might be to group all words containing eight letters. Another might be to group words with more than one e. See how many categories you can create. (Logical - mathematical)
- Write your words using different colors for the letters or parts of the word that are confusing to you. (Visual)
- Make up a story using all spelling words. Tell the story to another person, stopping to spell each spelling word. (linguistic)
- Sing - spell your words to the melody of your favorite song. (musical)
- Create a body alphabet of letters and pantomime each letter of each spelling word. (kinesthetic)
- With a partner, use the "Think, Pair, Share" technique to practice your spelling words. (interpersonal)
- Create your own goals for how you will study and learn your spelling words (intrapersonal)
